REMEMBER the Bradshaw sale this morning at ten o'clock.

The Monday Night Literary Club met Monday night with Albert Hinton.

All of the slot machines have been removed from the hotels and saloons in this city.

A Winchester football team will play a Paris team at Doug Thomas' race track on the 29th.

A THIEF stole two bags of sweet potatoes from Judge Russell Mann's garden Wednesday night.

First-class anthracite stove, in excellent condition. Will sell cheap. Inquire at THE NEWS office.

THERE will be services at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. There will be none at night.

The Paris Elks gave a social session Monday night in honor of the ten Elks who are members of Barlow Bros. Minstrels.

The young ladies of the Episcopal Church will give an oyster supper Tuesday night in the store room lately vacated by Rion & Clay.

FOR RENT—A six-room residence on High Street, adjoining the Dan Turney residence. Possession given immediately. Apply to J. T. HINTON.

The Pastime Bowling Alley continues to be the most popular place of amusement in the city. There is talk of a series of games to be played soon by Paris and Mt. Sterling teams.

We failed to mention in our list of awards of the Paris street "free-fair," that Mr. J. G. Rogers, of North Middletown, won the prize offered by Miss M. A. McCarthy for the best love-letter.

The News is indebted to Acting Hospital Steward Dr. Julius M. Purnell, of this city, for a copy of America, a daily newspaper printed at Mayaguez, Porto Rico, U. S. A. The newspaper bears date of October 7th.

BOB SMITH, of Meridian, Miss., who is a clever humorist and impersonator, formerly of this place, and a brother of Messrs. John S. and T. Porter Smith, of this city, will give one of his unique entertainments at the Newtown Christian Church Thursday night, Oct. 27th.

REV. DR. GEORGE SAVAGE, of Winchester, who has been District Superintendent of the American Bible Society for thirty-two years, was in the city Wednesday. During that time he has traveled 525,268 miles, a remarkable record for a man eighty-two years old. Dr. Savage was for many years president of the Millersburg Female College, and has a very large circle of friends.

Underwear and hosiery, all kinds, at Frank & Co's.

A Fine Farm Sold.

TUESDAY auctioneer A. T. Forsyth sold at public sale the farm of the late Lafayette Ardery, containing 125 acres, near this city, to Clark and Charles Barnett, for $100 per acre.

Judge Webb's Decision.

Tobe Bedinger, of color, was fined $7.50 in Judge Webb's court for using language unknown in polite society.

Morris and Jim Hawkins and Dave Turner were each taxed $5.50 for indulging in target practice in the city limits with their rapid-firing guns.

The Baptist Meeting.

Rev. Z. T. Cody, of Georgetown, is conducting a most interesting meeting at the Baptist Church, and both his morning and evening sermons are being enjoyed by large audiences. The additions to the church since the meeting began are Mr. O. P. Clay and Mrs. Ed. Ford. The singing is a pleasing feature of the meeting. Services are held every morning at half-past ten, and in the evening at seven o'clock.

Frank & Co. are showing an elegant line of ready-to-wear suits, skirts and silk waists.

Judge Purnell's Sentences.

In Judge Purnell's court Wednesday Jim Ward was fined $14.60 for a breach of the peace.

Jack Bradley, of Hatchison, was sentenced to thirty days at hard labor for petit larceny.

Si Venney, of color, was mulcted $10 for reproving his sweetheart with a club.

Green Jackson and George Banks, the latter being known as "Poodletack," were sentenced to sixty days at hard labor for stealing coal from L. & N. cars at the coal chute.

John Waring was fined one dollar for failing to answer a subpoena. Ida Smith is in jail awaiting trial for the same offense.

Albert Helvey, a colored youth who was whipped by the order of Judge Cantrill for grabbing a pocket-book from Mrs. Lula King while she was riding in an omnibus, was sentenced to seventy-five days at hard labor for stealing coal from the L. & N.

Masonic Grand Lodge.

THE Grand Lodge of Kentucky Masons, in session this week at Louisville, voted to draw the color line, and passed a resolution of non-intercourse between Kentucky lodges and the Washington Lodge. The Grand Chapter of the Kentucky Royal Arch Masons elected the following officers: Wm. R. Johnson, Louisville, Grand High Priest; Robert P. Jenkins, Maysville, Deputy Grand High Priest; J. Speed Smith, Richmond, Grand King; Wm. G. Spencer, Lebanon, Grand Scribe; Frank H. Johnson, Frankfort, Grand Treasurer, and H. B. Grant, Louisville, Grand Secretary. H. C. Bailey, of Cynthiana, was elected Grand Junior Warden, and Joe Ewalt, of this city, was appointed Grand Pursuivant.

Watch Thief Caught.

TUESDAY night while John Parker, colored, was pricing some watches at Harry Ogden's jewelry store, he grabbed one of the watches while Mr. Ogden had his back turned for a moment, and ran from the store. He was pursued by Mr. Ogden but was not captured. Yesterday morning Mr. Ogden saw him in front of the coat house and asked to see his watch. Parker fumbled with it for a moment and then started to run. He turned into Third street followed by persons crying "stop thief," and was captured by O. P. Carter Jr., who was coming towards Main street. He was taken to jail by Turney Allen Kiser. In Judge Purnell's court yesterday Parker was sentenced to three months in jail at hard labor.

Second Kentucky Troubles.

THE return of the Second Kentucky Regiment Tuesday to Lexington after a month's furlough revealed the fact that there has been a gross neglect of duty in some quarters. There were no rations for the boys, and though it had been known for a month that the regiment was to report on that day there were but seven tents at the camp to accommodate 1,300 men. The men had to either go home or to hotels and boarding houses. But this was merely in keeping with the treatment the Second Kentucky has received since it went into service. There is little room for wonder that the men want to quit the service. It will probably be ten days before the regiment is mustered out.

The Winchester Minstrels.

THE Winchester Sun says: "The Winchester Minstrel Company is arranging a tour, beginning here and embracing, in the order named, Mt. Sterling, Paris, Frankfort and Lexington. An excellent program has been prepared, with the cake walk as a prominent feature. In this act the champion walkers, Robert Frank, of Paris; W. B. Bean, Will Massie and Stuart Tracy, of this city, will take part, with Asa Bush, the king, as master of ceremonies. This entertainment is designed on high points and will be something entirely out of the ordinary in the way of refined minstrelsy."

"Answer With a Kiss."

THE Cynthiana Democrat says: We have received a new waltz song entitled "Answer With a Kiss." The words are by Mr. Walter Champ, the talented young editor of the Bourbon News, and the music by Mr. Henry Saxton, of Lexington. The words are very appropriate and the music quite tuneful and "catchy." The price is fifty cents. Ilsen & Co. Cincinnati, publishers.

The song is on sale at Varden & Co.'s drug store, or can be ordered from the publishers.

Special Registration Days.

NEXT Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 24, 25 and 26, those who were absent from the city on registration day, voters who were sick and unable to register, and those who were detained at home by the sickness of members of their families, are entitled to register by affidavit at the County Clerk's office.

Every citizen who failed to register because of one of these three reasons should call at the County Clerk's office on one of these three days and have his name enrolled.

Engagements, Announcements And Solennizations Of The Marriage Vows.

The marriage of Mr. Mason G. Talbott and Miss Nora May McCray, both of North Middletown, will occur in November.

Miss Lizzie Chaplain, formerly of this city, now of Cincinnati, will be married next Wednesday to Mr. Coughlin, of Covington.

Albert Cook, aged fifteen, and Miss Hiley Lawson, a spinster aged fifty, of Albany, Ky., eloped to Tennessee, Tuesday night, and were married.

Mr. R. C. Richardson, of Louisville, and Miss Enola Moore Wilson, of Midway, will be married November 2 at high noon in the First Christian church in Midway.

Miss Elizabeth Van Dyke Cheatham, of Louisville, who was the guest of Miss Mary Irvine Davis, in this city, several years ago, will be married in April to Mr. James Baker, of Chicago.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Craig, of Cynthiana, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Pearl Vertner Craig, to Dr. James Thompson Ware, Wednesday afternoon, October 26th, at half-past three o'clock, at the Methodist Church, in Cynthiana. Dr. Ware is a former resident of this city, and is a son of Mr. Thompson Ware.

Ensign John Hines, of the U. S. Navy, now stationed at Washington, was married at Lexington Wednesday night to Miss Mary Dudley Breckinridge, in the identical room where the bride's parents were married more than a quarter of a century ago. The wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. H. M. Skillman, aunt of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ragelisse, of Washington, after which a supper was served by a Washington caterer. Among the guests were officers of Gen. Breckinridge's staff, the commanding officers at Camp Hamilton and several Washington friends. The best man was Lieut. Ethelbert Breckinridge, and the maid of honor was Miss Lucy Hazel Breckinridge—the brother and sister of the bride. The bride wore a Paris-made gown of white silk, high neck and long sleeves, trimmed with orange blossoms, and rare point lace, which had been in the family for over 100 years and which her mother wore on her wedding gown.

FINE MERCHANT TAILORS.

S. E. TIPTON, Cutter.

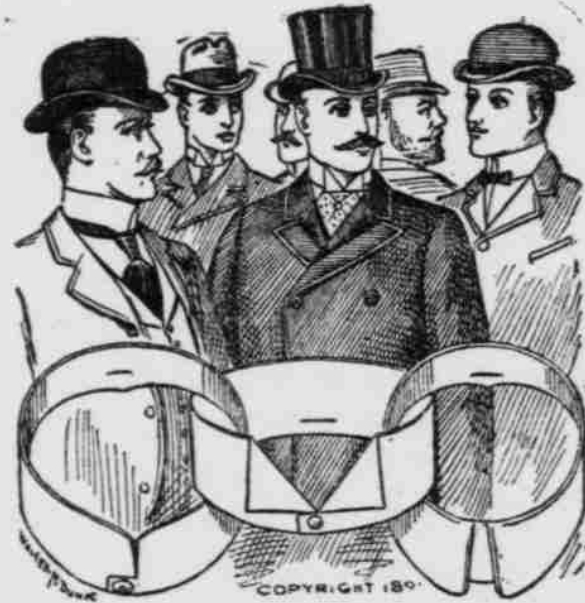

If you cannot read this small print at a distance of 14 inches your eyesight is failing and should have immediate attention:

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centered and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and consequently of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and elegance. When both frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Dr. C. H. Bowen's system they always give satisfaction for they are perfect. Never buy cheap spectacles, nor of men who do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy Imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheaper in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
